James Lewis

James Lewis attended Robertson Business College where he graduated with an Associate Degree in Business Administration. He left Louisiana and moved to Houston, TX where he launched and owned his own freight and logistics company for several years. He is the father of four beautiful and talented children, three daughters and one son. He enjoys spending time with his six grandchildren, one of which he recently attended the graduation for at Rice University in Houston, TX. James has always been about business but can always find the time to be a great father, friend and son. He is currently retired and has moved back to his hometown of Rayville, LA to be closer to his mother and enjoy the simple things that life has to offer. You can see James on any given Sunday at Pilgrim Rest #2 Baptist Church in Rayville, LA, where he serves on the deacon board.

Blue moon

*you saw me standing alone
without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own*

Blue moon

*You knew just what I was there for
You heard me saying a prayer for Someone I really could care for
And then they suddenly appeared before me
The only one my arms will ever hold*

I heard somebody whisper

Please adore me

And when I looked

The moon had turned to gold

Blue moon

*Now I'm no longer alone
Without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own*

Blue moon

*you saw me standing alone
without a dream in my heart
Without a love of my own*

*You knew just what I was there for
You heard me saying a prayer for
Someone I really could care for
And then they suddenly appeared before me
The only one my arms will ever hold*

"Dear Ole' Britton High"
Go Dragons!!!

Alma Mater

*Let our voices loudly ringing Echo far and near,
Songs of praise thy children singing
To thy memory dear.
Through the years we've been together
Fondly we recall,
Days of fair and stormy weather
Thou has gladdened all.
Years may dim our recollection,
Time its change may bring,
Still thy name in fond affection
Evermore we sing.*

Chorus

*Alma Mater, Alma Mater!
Tender, fair and true.
Britton High with love unfailing
We owe our love to you.*
